Our Workshops

We have a range of pre-planned workshops which are cross curricular, or you can mix and match to suit the needs of your class. The workshops are based in the Animal Barn, Kitchen Garden or the National Forest Woodland. Please have a look at our website for more information about each workshop. Please choose 1 of the following:

- Animal Themed Workshops
 - Amazing Animals
 - New Life on the Farm (springtime only)
 - Busy Bees
- Growing Themed Workshops
 - Healthy Plants, Healthy People
 - The Very Hungry Caterpillar
 - Little Red Hen
 - Busy Bees
 - Mini Beasts
- Woodland Themed Workshops (Please ensure all children wear wellies)
 - We're Going on a Bear Hunt
 - Terrific Trees
 - Three Little Pigs (Habitats & Materials)
- Help the Farmer – limited February 2020 dates only

What you can expect

- An hour-long workshop linked to Key Stages 1, 2 and EYFS Early Learning Goals
- Tractor ride for your group
- Access to all indoor and outdoor play and animal areas
- Undercover base and area for lunch
- A free return voucher for each child
- Free teacher places (ratio 1:5) plus pre-visit

When you can come

We are open for School visits all year round in Staffordshire term times*. We suggest a pre-visit from teachers to discuss what they want to achieve from the trip so we can be sure to meet your expectations.

*School and nursery holiday clubs visiting during holiday periods pay the group rate if bringing 12 or more children to us.
